Programme

PRIDE in the NHS 2019

NHS England, Calderdale & Huddersfield NHS Foundation Trust and the Royal College of Nursing

Wednesday 3 July 2019
Park Plaza, Boar Lane, Leeds

8:30-9:00 - Registration and refreshments

9:00-9:10 - Welcome and introduction
Glenn Turp, RCN Regional Director, Dr Sal Uka, Consultant Paediatrician & Associate Medical Director, Calderdale & Huddersfield NHS Foundation Trust & Carole Lavelle, Director of Nursing, NHS England Yorkshire & the Humber

9:10-9:55 - Proud to be leading the way – the importance of networks –
Patrick Price, Equality & Diversity Lead for Northumbria Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust and Northumbria County Council

9:55-10:40 - The Evelina Project –
Michael Farquhar, The Evelina London Rainbow NHS Badge Project

10:40-11:05 - Mid-morning break with refreshments and stands

11:05-12:35 - Becoming me – Jessica Lynn, Kinsey Institute Global Ambassador and Transgender Activist

12:35-13:35 - Lunch

13:35-14:35 - Choice of workshops

1. Opening Doors – Over 50s and LGBT – Alice Wallace, Director, Opening Doors London

2. Young people – Mental and emotional health – Barnardos

3. Homelessness – Anna Manetta-Stark, Big Issue North

4. Muslim and Gay – Khakan Qureshi, Founder of Finding a Voice

5. The History of LGBTQ+ - Janan Nuri & Alan Chalkley, RCN Library and Archive Services

14:45-15:10 - Mid-afternoon break with refreshments and stands

15:10-15:50 - Rhona Cameron –
Comedian, Actor and Author

15:50-16:20 - Speaker Q&A

16:20-16:30 - Closing remarks
Glenn Turp, RCN Regional Director, Dr Sal Uka, Consultant Paediatrician & Associate Medical Director, Calderdale & Huddersfield NHS Foundation Trust & Carole Lavelle, Director of Nursing, NHS England Yorkshire & the Humber